

Bishop Frank Agyapong is the founder and overseer of New Testament Assembly, Ghana. He and his wife Cecilia Agyapong were born and raised in Kumasi Ghana, a Sub Sahara country in West Africa. They have been planting churches in rural areas for the past 30 years. There are currently 27 NTA churches throughout the country.

try.

Bishop Agyapong desire to reach the rural dwellers of Ghana, which make up 60% of the countries population. His passion is seeing low income families and deprived communities, who lack hope and inner-motivation for their future, changed by the power of Jesus Christ.

Bishop Agyapong believes that by presenting the holistic Gospel of Jesus—meeting both the physical and spiritual needs of people—lives will transformed, and the social and economic make up of communities will experience positive and long lasting changes. (1 Samuel 2:7-8, Luke 4:18, 2 Corinthians 8:9)

Bishop Agyapong has been ordained with New Testament Assembly since he began ministry thirty year years ago. In 2004 he was consecrated into the office of Bishop. Bishop Agyapong has been a part of Ministers Fellowship International, since 1999.

Ask For the Nations Ministries was founded by Jody and Stephanie Roscoe for the purpose of bringing the Gospel of Jesus Christ to unreached people groups among the Nations, specifically in West Africa. AFN believes in sharing the love of Jesus by meeting the physical and spiritual needs of people. AFN have been working with Bishop Frank Agyapong and The Canaan Life Project since 2002.

The Canaan Life Project

The Canaan Life Project was established to preach the holistic Gospel of Jesus Christ. CLP seeks to eradicate poverty through teaching Biblical financial principles and providing the education, skills, and opportunities necessary to become financially independent.

The Canaan Life Project is a ministry of New Testament Assembly Church of Ghana, West Africa, and works in partnership with Ask For the Nations Ministries of Portland, Oregon, USA. CLP was established by NTA's National Overseer, Bishop Frank Agyapong. The Canaan Life Project is a registered NGO/NPO in Ghana and the United States.

Mission

Our mission is to provide economic empowerment and education for financial independence to under privileged members of the church and community of Ghana.

Vision

Our Vision is to strengthen the Church and share the holistic Gospel of Jesus Christ with the people of Ghana. Our vision is to see people know and live God's plan of abundance and blessing; a life free from poverty. Our vision to cultivate a lifestyle of giving and saving, through Biblical principles of sowing and reaping.

Christianity is virtually a call from God to inherit a blessing. (Deuteronomy 7:12-15, 8:6-13). The Canaan Life Project seeks to teach these positive values. As the people of God begin to live a life of abundance they shall share their freedom and blessing with others, spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ.
