

Ask For the Nations Ministries

Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations .... Psalm 2:8

March-April, 2011

Dear Family and Friends:

He is RISEN! It is our prayer that each of you had a joy filled Easter Sunday, remembering the Cross, Christ's sacrifice, and the power of His Resurrection.

Family News

The time is winding down, and we will soon be heading back to Ghana. In the meantime, our family is keeping busy with school, work, baseball, and a few mini adventures along the way.

A spring with more sunny days than rainy means lots of afternoons playing outside. A few days ago, Son discovered what I have been told is the "Gopher of the South." A turtle he named Steve. After one failed attempt to return Steve to the wild, we accepted our new family member and went to work creating an acceptable "habitat" for him in our backyard. Son loves his new friend very much!

Amor por Juarez!

Construction at the Orphanage.

Happy Kids in their new space!

Praying for Juarez Police Officers.

At the end of March, Jody and a team from the World Outreach Center went to Juarez, Mexico, to do reconstruction and roofing on an orphanage, tripling its size! They also had an opportunity to minister in local churches, local parks, and pray for a few policemen. The team came back very excited about what God is doing in this city.

My sister, Katie, was part of the Juarez team. This was her first foreign mission trip. She fell in love with the people, and was excited to see how her gifts and callings line up with short term missions.

A childhood friend of Katie and I, Josh, was also on the team. He and Jody became fast friends and I am sure this was just the first of many missions adventures they will have together. Josh also made connections with the Juarez missionaries, so he may continue to minister there in the future.

Unrest in West Africa

Important Ghana, Africa news on the reverse side!

West Africa has been in the news quite a bit lately. A few weeks ago 1,000 civilians were killed in a single village as a result of the political unrest in the Ivory Coast. Burkina Faso is experiencing an army mutiny, and riots in Nigeria are causing thousands to flee their homes.

These things are not just happening in West Africa, but around the world. The coming of our Savior King Jesus is near! Before He can return, the Church has a job to finish. There are still Nations and Peoples waiting to hear of Jesus Christ and His sacrifice for the very first time.

Ghana is ready and so are we!

Ghana is at peace. As nations crumble around, Ghana is stable, thriving politically and economically. Refugees from surrounding nations—which have very little access to the Gospel—are finding rest in the safe borders of Ghana. Ghana is prime and ready for a move of God that will spread through out the region!

We are moving forward as God leads, making the final preparations, and returning to Ghana this September! That's just a short five months away! We are excited to be going back, however, there is still much to do and support to be raised. It's going to be a very busy summer. Please keep praying for us!
