

Dear family and Friends,

The internship has ended and the journey of becoming an intercessory prayer missionary has begun. Intro to IHOP was the most intense three months of my life. During Intro my weeks were packed with teaching, ushering, prayer, awakening services and volunteering with the children's ministry. It was a time of dedication and truly learning what it is to give your life at IHOP. It was tough at times, but every moment was worth it.

As Intro came to a close I was able to look back and see how deeply the Lord had changed my life. He took out so much insecurity and filled me with a passion I have never known. The best part is that I know it is only the beginning of what the Lord has in store for me.

Currently I am raising funds and focusing on finding my place at IHOP -KC. I was able to take a trip back to Portland and speak to my home church about IHOP and my vision for being involved there. I was able to have a dessert party, which was so much fun! Through that and a generous offering I was able to pay my May expenses! This was such a blessing from God and I know just the beginning of His provision in my life. I am so blessed with a strong church family that I love very much.

Please continue to pray as I begin this new journey in ministry. Thanks for all the prayer and support.
